

Captain America

moe.

Captain Captain America said you gotta be like me Or you're gonna wind up dead last At the end of your rope Flat broke Down and tired You sleepy head Won't you go to bed Let me run your life Lies

Clark Kent ran for president No one knew about the secrets locked in his head Friends tried to take his life Accusations flew Flew like Kryptonite Clark still looking good What you gonna say To make everything alright Lies

May be right May be wrong I'm in the middle anyway May be right May be wrong I'm in the middle anyway Stuck in the middle anyway

Buckshot shooter Had a realm of fun With a smoking gun Heard around the world What a War of the Worlds What a wonderful way to wage Suicide Lies! Pay your fine Do your time Let me run your life Lies

May be right May be wrong I'm in the middle anyway May be right May be wrong I'm in the middle anyway Stuck in the middle anyway Right in the middle Dead in the middle anyway

Captive America read I gotta be like you With a bubble in your bed Buzzin' your telephone Like you're not at home Home on the range Bread and corn fed Won't you got to bed Let me run your life Lies

May be right May be wrong I'm in the middle anyway May be right May be wrong I'm in the middle anyway May be right May be wrong I'm in the middle anyway Stuck in the middle Right in the middle Dead in the middle anyway
