

Kyle's Song

moe.

With cowboy boots upon his feet, Look both ways before you cross the street. I saw you flying like a superstar, Off the hood of some offending car.

The ambulance came right away. Across the street, I heard him say: "Al I got hit by a car, You're a good friend Al, that's what you are."

Crushed like green velour, You can't keep him down. Who will mind the store When Kyle's out of town?

Crushed like green velour, You can't keep him down. Who will mind the store When Kyle's out of town?

Kyle got hurt pretty bad. I guess he earned his victim badge. He's an eagle scout with broken bones. Eating percocets and ice cream cones.

9:30 Club seems far away. But I swear I still can hear him say:
"Al I got hit by a car. You're a good friend Al, that's what you are."