

Rainshine

moe.

Rainshine, rainshine
Rainshine coming down
Breathing right again

Well, maybe drink a little water
Hell or hide in some shade
Have you seen my brother?
What was that promise that you made?

Rainshine, rainshine
Rainshine coming down
Breathing right again
I just need a little love
You are the one I'm thinking of
The skies are rolling thunder, turning black and blue
Everything just opens up and falls on you

Rainshine, rainshine
Rainshine coming down
Breathing right again

Well, maybe drink a little water
Hell or hide in some shade
Have you seen my brother?
What was that promise that you made?

Rainshine, rainshine
Rainshine coming down
Breathing right again

Rainshine, rainshine
Rainshine coming down
Breathing right again

Rainshine, rainshine
Rainshine coming down
Breathing right again
