

This Ain't a Love Song

Mötley Crüe

I met her down at Marilyn's Grave, looking like an S & M slave, Drinking like a fool with a prison tattoo on her cheek,

Well I knew it would never last, cause we were running from our criminal past,
But none of that mattered I was hot and she was flattered by me

Well I had one or two gram lines to get inside her head,
There's no need for roses I just laid her down in bed.

This ain't a love song, this is a fuck song, don't have to sing along,
This ain't a love song, it's just a fuck song, yeah, um

She didn't wanna look in my eyes, as we bailed down Beverly dri ve,
Looking for a place to stop, a little place to get high,
Susie didn't call it love, she was good just giving it up,
All she really wanted was a little Rock N Roll that night,

She said "Turn it up so fuckin' loud, that I can't hear my mind
",
She bent down on the bed post, and I watched Suzie grind!

This ain't a love song, this is a fuck song, don't have to sing
along,
This ain't a love song, it's just a fuck song, let's do it all night long, yeah! Wow!

Well I had one or two gram lines to get inside her head,
There's no need for roses I just laid her down in bed.

This ain't a love song, this is a fuck song, don't have to sing
along,
This ain't a love song, it's just a fuck song, yeah! Um!
