

I Love You

Mohombi

You just forget about it
You must forget about her
They keep on telling me, but I don't wanna hear
My life is going under
Without you, nothing matters
The best part of me, has just disappear

Oh, I knew it was true the first time I saw her
Why do you think I do?
All the things I do
Oh, who would think we'll end up?
Will I hate you?
It took one day or two, to say I love you

I love, love, love, love, you you you you you
No matter what's just going (I love you girl, you mean the world to me)
I love, love, love, love, you you you you you
Whatever happens girl

You know, that we were happy
Why go, to be unhappy
We never really tried, to make everything alright
You have a thousand questions
I will find thousand reasons
Why you should be with me?
And never say goodbye

Oh, I knew it was true the first time I saw her
Why do you think I do?
All the things I do
Oh, who would think we'll end up?
Will I hate you?
It took one day or two, to say I love you

I love, love, love, love, you you you you you
No matter what's just going (I love you girl, you mean the world to me)
I love, love, love, love, you you you you you
Whatever happens girl

Now I know that I never should've let you go
I swollen him, my pride and I admit that I didn't always treat you right
Let me show, that we can be better enough than before
Give it some time, you'll find that it's worth the fight
But three little words, we've heard a million times
I've told you so many times but we don't know how
But three little words, can change your life
You came and you changed my life, that's why

I love, love, love, love, you you you you you
No matter what's just going (I love you girl, you mean the world to me)
I love, love, love, love, you you you you you
Whatever happens girl
