

After Your Heart

Moira Dela Torre

Bring me to the highest mountains
Bring me to the widest plains
Fly me to the skies above
I'd still call out Your name
Bring me to the deepest waters
Drive me through the longest roads
Take me away from these shadows
I'd still call out Your name
I'll stand firm and pray

Cause I don't wanna go somewhere else
I wanna run towards You
I don't wanna look away
Cause my eyes are fixed on You
I don't wanna live for someone else
Cause You gave a brand new start
And these feet'll keep on going
I'm after Your heart

Bring me to Your love's chambers
Bring me in Your midst
Bring me to the palm of your hands
Sail me towards the rising sun
Sail me through the rivers run
Spread my wings a wide
And I'll still call out Your Name
I'd stand firm and pray

Cause I don't wanna go somewhere else
I wanna run towards You
I don't wanna look away
Cause my eyes are fixed on You
I don't wanna live for someone else
Cause You gave a brand new start
And these feet'll keep on going
I'm after Your heart

Nothing else can satisfy, I'm after Your heart
To You alone, I give my life, I'm after Your heart
Cause no matter where I go
No matter what I do
These feet were made to run after You
Only You

Cause I don't wanna go somewhere else
I wanna run towards You
I don't wanna look away
Cause my eyes are fixed on You
I don't wanna live for someone else
Cause You gave a brand new start
And these feet'll keep on going
I'm after Your heart
I'm after Your heart...

Bring me to the highest mountains
Bring me to the widest plains
Fly me to the skies above

I'd still call out Your name
