

Knots

Moira Dela Torre

How's my hair look, is it messy?
Can she tell that I'm not ready?
Is it too late for me to turn back?
Oh, oh, oh well

Tried to calm down, it's not workin'
Tryna keep my cool, he's approachin'
I wonder if he likes me back

I'm not one to play these games, I hope you'll see
I won't waste my time on what's not meant to be
I need to show what I've got, I've got
I need to give this a shot, I've got

Knots inside my stomach and I can't seem to breathe
Happens any time you're in the vicinity
After anything you say, I can't seem to speak
Every time your eyes catch mine I'm suddenly weak

And I don't know just what it is
Why I'm shy, a little timid and nervous
Around you, around you

What am I doin', abort the mission
Did I just ruined my first impression?
I'm crashin' and I'm burnin' now
Oh, oh, oh well

I'm on lockdown, pretend I'm typin'
Can he tell my phone's not workin'?
Wonder what he thinks of me now

I'm not one to play these games, I hope you'll see
I won't waste my time on what's not meant to be
I need to show what I've got, I've got
I need to give this a shot, I've got

Knots inside my stomach and I can't seem to breathe
Happens any time you're in the vicinity
After anything you say, I can't seem to speak
Every time your eyes catch mine I'm suddenly weak

And I don't know just what it is
Why I'm shy, a little timid and nervous
Around you, around you

Knots inside my stomach and I can't seem to breathe
Happens any time you're in the vicinity
After anything you say, I can't seem to speak
Every time your eyes catch mine I'm suddenly weak

And I don't know just what it is
Why I'm shy, a little timid and nervous
Around you, around you

I can't hide my feelings anymore
Do I keep on goin'

Closer till I meet your eyes
Closer till your eyes meet mine

I can't hide my feelings anymore
Do I keep on goin'
Closer till I meet your eyes
Closer till your eyes meet mine

Knots inside my stomach and I can't seem to breathe
Happens any time you're in the vicinity
After anything you say, I can't seem to speak
Every time your eyes catch mine I'm suddenly weak

And I don't know just what it is
Why I'm shy, a little timid and nervous
Around you, around you
