

Broken

Moist

Close my eyes and wait for dark
Feel you by my side
With words so quiet they cut so hard
Tears me open

I can hear the people singing
praying to the angels
Hallelujah Hallelujah
tears are streaming down their faces
So we rip their wings away
Believing only in the world we see

I'm broken
After all this time
No other better love can save me
As I come to life
I'm broken
And I flew so high
No other better love can save me
As I come to life

And deep inside the coldest part
Wrap wire around it
With nails to dull we dig so far
To tear this open

I can hear the people singing
praying to the angels
Hallelujah Hallelujah
tears are streaming down their faces

So we rip their wings away
Believing only in the world we see

I'm broken
After all this time
No other better love can save me
As I come to life
I'm broken
And I flew so high
No other better love can save me
As I come to life
Come to life

I can hear the people singing
praying to the angels
Hallelujah Hallelujah
tears are streaming down their faces
So we rip their wings away
Believing only in the world
Hallelujah Hallelujah

Broken
After all this time
As I come to life

I'm broken
And I flew so high
As I come to life
Come to life
