

Keep It All Hid

Mojave 3

You keep it all hid
Like your waiting for the guillotine
To fall
You keep it all hid
Like your waiting
For someone to save you

And you lean against the wall
Like you just learned how
And you tell me that you know me
But I don't know why
So I just laugh

Yeah you keep it all hid
Don't it make you feel alone
You keep it all hid
Don't it make you feel tired

You used to smile
Now you just stare at your knees
Sometimes honey I wish I was Better company
And so do you

But you keep it all hid
Yeah you keep it all hid
You keep it all hid
Don't you babe

Did you ever really know
Did you ever really give
Did you ever take the time
Did you read between the lines
No you waited for me to try

Yeah you keep it all hid
You keep it all hid
You keep it all hid
Don't you babe

You can keep it
Yeah you can keep it
You keep it all hid
