

To Whom Should I Write

Mojave 3

Where are you now?
Did you travel too far?
And how are your dreams?
Have you got what you need?
And whom do you smile on?
Did you walk out the line?
Did you take what you wanted?
Did you take what was right?
And whom do you fly with
When you break out the day?
Whom do you cry with?
Whose wings do you steal?

To whom should I write?

Whose smile do you ride on
When you're walking alone?
And whom do you think of
When the night is your home?
Is there nothing that breaks you,
No thought for the dead?
And whom should I think of
When closing the door?
Yeah, to whom should I think of?
Which smile should I ride?

To whom should I write?
