

Let It Burn

Moke

Everytime we go, i'm weak everytime i fall to sleep
But in every dream i have We meet.
Everytime i'm awake, you're gone
Tell me how it all went wrong
Can i change this life we live
'Cuz you've got it in your head now, head now Yeah you've got it in your head now, head now
Do you mind if i
light up the fire
and let it burn
Do you mind if i
light up the fire
and let it burn
I let it burn
I let it burn
I let it burn
When i called, there was no one there Guess you was be lost somewhere You shamed me, but i still believe
'Cuz you've got it in your head now, head now Yeah you've got it in your head now, head now
Do you mind if i
light up the fire
and let it burn
do you mind if i
light up the fire
'Cuz you've got it in your head now, head now Yeah you've got it in your head now, head now
Do you mind if i
light up the fire
and let it burn
Do you mind if i
light up the fire
and let it burn
Let it burn
Let it burn
Try'na spark when need comes calling We're breaking my back and my hardest part is I'm up on my feet
but still feels like i'm falling You stood me away
When i was open to bring you home
-Music part-
'Cuz you've got it in your head now, head now
do you mind if i
light up the fire
and let it burn
do you mind if i
light up the fire
and let it burn
