

Bed

Molly Burch

I'm looking back at my old diary
I'm still sayin' all the same things
Which got me thinking, have I even changed?
I wanna be better, yeah, rearranged

Now, well I wanna make my bed
Then I wanna lie in it
Close my eyes
Picture a future that I would be proud of
Try and manifest the love, now I'm surrounded
Lately I've been thinking a lot, yeah, I've been thinking too much
Need to reassess my expectations

I'm looking back at my beginning
Everybody said I was the greatest
Which got me thinking, was the bar set higher than it shoulda been?
Now I'm in slow motion

Now, well I wanna make my bed
Then I wanna lie in it
Close my eyes
Picture a future that I would be proud of
Try and manifest the love, now I'm surrounded
Lately I've been thinking a lot, yeah, I've been thinking too much
Need to reassess my expectations
Now, well I wanna make my bed
Then I wanna lie in it
Close my eyes now

Lately I've been thinking a lot, yeah, I've been thinking too much
Need to reassess my expectations
Lately I've been thinking a lot, yeah, I've been thinking too much
Need to reassess my expectations
Now, well I wanna make my bed
Then I wanna lie in it
Close my eyes
