

Champion

Molly Burch

I try not to compare
I'm sitting right here
Contemplating my life I've got only one
So I'm facing my demons
Thinkin' 'bout leaving
Starting over new life like a champion

Hurry up I'm tired of waiting
Look at me my heart is breaking
Loving you goes on and on and on
Wherever I am I will think about it
No escaping this surrounding
Loving you goes on and on and on

I'm okay I promise
But to be honest
Days like these I feel I'm back at square one
So I try to be open
Let myself slow down
Take it easy baby you're a champion

Hurry up I'm tired of waiting
Look at me my heart is breaking
Loving you goes on and on and on
Wherever I am I will think about it
No escaping this surrounding
Loving you goes on and on and on

Hurry up I'm tired of waiting
Look at me my heart is breaking
Loving you goes on and on and on
Wherever I am I will think about it
No escaping this surrounding
Loving you goes on and on and on
