Molly Burch

Everything I ever knew about love I learned from watching movies
I'm pretending that I know what I want and I'm confident in choosing
But when I'm honest with myself I look so foolish
I want to win but that makes me feel like I'm losing
Feels like I'm losing
Feels like I'm

Caught up, up in the games
I'm lost, always the same
I'm caught, up in the games
I'm lost, always the same

Can't explain I'm only hiding behind my own excuses
I'm pretending I know what I want and I'm confident in choosing
But when I'm honest with myself I look so clueless
I want to win but that makes me feel like I'm losing
Feels like I'm

Caught up, up in the games
I'm lost, always the same
I'm caught, up in the games
I'm lost, always the same
