New Beginning

Molly Burch

It used to feel impossible
To love myself like I would another
But as it moves I feel the worries subsiding
It really feels like it's the timing

New beginning on my mind
Won't fight it any longer
I'm trying to love again
New beginning

It used to feel like everything mattered
Like one opinion could throw me off balance
But as it moves I feel the worries subsiding
It really feels like it's behind us

New beginning on my mind
Won't fight it any longer
I'm trying to love again
New beginning on my mind

But as it moves I feel the worries subsiding
It really feels like it's the timing

It really feels like it's the timing

It really feels like it's the timing
