

Sunday

Molly Johnson

On this sunny Sunday afternoon
Just a lazy wasted day in June

Let the world slip away
On this almost perfect afternoon
Can't we stay in bed all day?
Just this one day
This golden Sunday with you

Watching clouds drift
Gently by all day
Wondering if you'll just
Come down and play

Let the world slip away
On this almost perfect afternoon
Can't we stay in bed all day?
Just this one day
This golden Sunday with you

Can't it be easy
Just to be true
Just like a photograph of you
Fades in time, don't let it fade from view

Cause i know that my love
Can easily buy
Happy days filled with golden times
Even on a rainy day

Feel the kiss of afternoon's bright sun
Feel yourself completely come undone

Let the world slip away
On this almost perfect afternoon
Can't we stay in bed all day
Just this one day, this golden Sunday with you (3x)

Feel yourself completely come undone
