Unchained

Molly Sandén

I don't care, if she's with you
 If she kiss you like I used to do
 Refuse to cry, when you're around
 I wont even look away if I see you hand in hand
 Cause I'm in a better place,
 That you'd never understand

 Cause I run with the speed of light
 No, not even bullets can stop me now
 And I will never go back, go back, go back now
 You wont see me go back, go back, go back now
 I've never felt so untouchable,
 I'm running with the wind I'm unstoppable
 And I will never go back, go back, go back now
 You wont see me go back, go back, go back now
 Cause I'm unchained

 You might think that I'm a mess
 Well look again, have a second guess, Oh
 I've never felt so alive, loving everything I do
 Cause you've made me realize I'm better of without you

 Cause I run with the speed of light
 No, not even bullets can stop me now
 And I will never go back, go back, go back now
 You wont see me go back, go back, go back now
 I've never felt so untouchable,
 I'm running with the wind I'm unstoppable
 And I will never go back, go back, go back now
 You wont see me go back, go back, go back now

 I'm keeping my heart, from falling apart
 With every broken beat, it beats for something I've lost,
 For someone I love, the one you were with me

 I don't care if she's with you
 And if she kiss you like I used to do

 Cause I run with the speed of light
 No, not even bullets can stop me now
 And I will never go back, go back, go back now
 You wont see me go back, go back, go back now
 I've never felt so untouchable,
 I'm running with the wind I'm unstoppable
 And I will never go back, go back, go back now
 You wont see me go back, go back, go back now
 Cause I'm unchained
 I'm unchained
 I'm unchained
 I'm unchained
