

Easy

Molly Tuttle

'Bout a mile out of Bakersfield, desert sky smiling on me
I got some fuzzy dice swingin', and I'm singin' "Act Naturally"
Thought I'd feel bad for breaking your heart
Found out that you'd been playing more than your guitar

You went and made it easy, easy
When I said that I was leaving, leaving
So torn that I was tearing our world apart
Turns out you've been wrecking it from the start
You went and made it one, two, three, easy, easy
One, two, three

If this old El Camino doesn't break down along the way
By the time the sun's sinking, I'll be drinking with some friends in LA

Mm

And you'll be wondering where your perfect gal is Standing all alone at the Crystal Palace

You went and made it easy, easy
When I said that I was leaving, leaving
So torn that I was tearing our world apart
Turns out you've been wrecking it from the start
You went and made it one, two, three, easy, easy
One, two, three
One, two, three, easy
One, two, three

Now it's so long for the last time
Down to my last goodbye
Bye-bye
Goodbye

One, two, three, easy, easy
One, two, three
One, two, three, easy
One, two, three
One, two, three, easy, easy
One, two, three
One, two, three, easy, easy
One, two, three
One, two, three, easy, easy
One, two, three, easy, easy
One, two, three
