

Mirrored Heart

Molly Tuttle

It's all for the gain
It's all for the lovers tryin' to take the breath away
It's all for the gain
It's all for the lovers tryin' to chase the rush again
It's all for the gain
It's all for the lovers tryin' to take the breath away
It's all for the gain
It's all for the lovers tryin' to chase the rush again

But I'm never gonna give up
Though I'm probably gonna think about you all the time
And for the lovers who found a mirrored heart
They just remind me I'm without you

Did you want me all?
No, not for life
Did you truly see me?
No, not this time
Were you ever sure?
No, no, no, not with me

That's why it's all for the gain
It's all for the lovers tryin' to push the pain away
It's all for the gain
It's all for the lovers tryin' to fuck away the pain

But I'm never gonna give up
Though I'm probably gonna think about you all the time
And for the lovers who found a mirrored heart
They just remind me I'm without you

Did you want me all?
No, not for life
Did you truly see me?
No, not this time
Were you ever sure?
No, no, no, not with me

Ah, ah
Ah, ah
Ah, ah
Ah, ah
