

Oasis

Molly Tuttle

Hatch chili peppers at a roadside stall
Sky of a million brilliant stars
Radio crackle from the Navajo rez
Look in your eyes that I'll never forget
Six weeks left on an Airstream rental
Never going back to the 40-hour saddle
Holding you close like nothing else matters
Write our names on the painted desert

Throw out all your best laid plans with me
We don't have to go, go, go like crazy
This could be the start of something amazing
Baby, you're my oasis

Sage and turquoise swinging on the rear view
Slide in close on the bench seat near you
Santa Fe sunset hanging in the sky
I'll keep our secret till the day I die
Road signs all say anywhere the wind blows
Hit that trail, the Sangre de Cristo
Every dawn is a new beginning
Took a lifetime, but now we're living

Throw out all your best laid plans with me
We don't have to go, go, go like crazy
This could be the start of something amazing

And we're gonna get lost till we find ourselves
And we're gonna go crazy till it all makes sense
Whoa

So throw out all your best laid plans with me
We don't have to go, go, go like crazy
This could be the start of something amazing
Just toss away the life you thought you had
Doesn't even matter where we land
Whoa, baby, you're my oasis
Yeah, my oasis

Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa
