

Over The Line

Molly Tuttle

I can't stop once the rebel hits the ground, I'm bound for Mexico

Sunlight wakes my sleeping head and turns the mountains gold

But I've got one too many ties to you

One too many tries for you

I'm tumbling down the mountain side for you

And I can't say I mind when love goes over the line

There's a snake in the middle of the road, do I swerve to miss?

I can't shake this feeling that I hold, there's poison in your kiss

But I've got one too many ties to you

One too many tries for you

I'm tumbling down the mountain side for you

And I can't say I mind when love goes over the line

Three more hours, my heart gets tossed

I tumble down into the rocks

My sleepy eyes they start to cross and I'm lost

Well I behold your shaking soul, trembling at the core

Your eyes are just like dynamite, still I ask for more

'Cause I've got one too many ties to you

One too many tries for you

I'm tumbling down the mountain side for you

And I can't say I mind when love goes over the line

No, I can't say I mind when love goes over the line
