

I'm The One

Molotov

I'm the one who's gonna die
when it's time for me to die,
I'm the one who's gonna die,
I'm the one who's gonna die,
I'm the one who's gonna die,
when it's time for me to die
live my life the way I want to

For real, cuz it's your pain when you feel it, it's your blood when you bleed it, it's your loss when you lose, agree or disagree.

That's why when you talk it, it's through your own teeth, and when you get to walk it, it's with your own feet.

Remember that when it's your grief, and it's you who feels the heat.
Infestation of fleas, people itching to critique, about success, they stress, and sneer at your defeats, don't need no raised eye-brows or looks of disbelief Fuck all the deceit that they all got up in 'em Nobody fights your's battles you're how's got to win 'em When you feel everybody wants to see you in the ruin Don't pay no nevermind keep on doing what you're doing

I'm the one who's gonna have to die when it's time for them to die, so if you don't like the way I live, you can kiss my ass.

I'm the one who's gonna die
when it's time for me to die,
I'm the one who's gonna die,
I'm the one who's gonna die,
I'm the one who's gonna die,
when it's time for me to die
live my life the way I want to

They're your boots you gonna stand in, it's your skin that you're stranded, no one else has a hand in what fate has commanded, it's your soul that is crammed in and your brain is rammed in.
Your life, you have to plan it, no one else will do the program,

so imagine, why people want in your soap opera, improper, how best friends will always try to stop ya Sit back and relax in your lazy-boy rocker make them the ones to ponder on how they're gonna stop ya

Well it's always a shame when it's time to pass the blame, you take it frame by frame when it's time to play the game, and no it's never the same when it's them thats in the rain, when it's you who gets the cane it's you who feels the pain, or the stain,
when you are faced down in the grass, so everybody gather around and raise your glass cuz no one's gonna die your death when it's time to pass so live like you feel and tell em to kiss your ass

when it's time for me to die,
I'm the one who's gonna die,
I'm the one who's gonna die,
I'm the one who's gonna die,
