

New Friend

Momma

New friend
Let's be alone again
Don't fret
I know it's not the end

Maybe we'll meet again
It's so hard to say no
Let's face it, we can't pretend
It's so hard to say no

Another sleepless night
And no, I won't cry
I know you made up your mind
I'll see you in another life
I'm always close by
It's such a short drive

Silver spring
We said it was just a fling
Fantasy
Then back to reality

God, we're in such a mess
It's so hard to say no
We'll put it behind, I guess
It's so hard to let go

Another sleepless night
And no, I won't cry
I know you made up your mind
I'll see you in another life
I'm always close by
It's such a short drive

I know I'm not supposed to ask
But did you forget?
Or am I stuck in your head?
I really liked the time we had
But I'll put it to rest
I got a new friend
At least I got a new friend

Let's be alone again
Let's be alone again
It's so hard to say no
New friend
Let's be alone again
New friend
Let's be alone again
It's so hard to say no
New friend
Let's be alone again
New friend
Let's be alone again
It's so hard to say no
New friend
Let's be alone again

New friend
Let's be alone again
