

No Stage

Momma

No stage or a set
I guess that's all I get
And in the final dance
I'd be playing alone if I had the chance

But I'm trapped in the scenery
Want you all around me
Living got a new lead
So keep me in a minor key
Anything you want from me
Anything you want

I'm a beater with no spark
But lonely makes it far

So put me on the big screen
Watch me as I glow under the lights
I'll be your favorite movie
'Cause I like a little tragedy

I can fill an auditorium, oh
I can fill an auditorium
I can fill an auditorium, oh
I can fill an auditorium

No place for a bet
I've settled all my debts
And now they throw me flowers
Because I'm playing alone in the final hour

So make me up a daydream
Let me be your everything
Anything you want from me
And when I hate what I've become
I'll be brave and buy a gun
A spark to the stars is a flare to the sun

Impressions on the sky
'Cause lonely gets me by

So put me on the big screen
Watch me as I glow under the lights
I'll be your favorite movie
'Cause I like a little tragedy

I can fill an auditorium, oh
I can fill an auditorium
I can fill an auditorium, oh
I can fill an auditorium

My fortune wears me thin
And loneliness begins
If I'm famous for the night
I'll be lonely all my life

So put me on the big screen
Put me on the big screen

Put me on the big screen

So put me on the big screen
Put me on the big screen
Put me on the big screen
