

Sincerely

Momma

Can I wish it away?
I never thought that before
Will everything change
Outside the door?

It's not easy to face
But I've been lost on my own before
Please don't beg me to stay
'Cause I'm outside the door
I'm outside the door

Anyone that calls
Should know I don't look back anymore
No return address, I love you to death
But I'm outside the door
I'm outside the door
I'm outside the door
I'm outside the door
I'm outside the door

I'm outside the door
I'm outside the door
