

A Complete History of Sexual Jealousy

Momus

I'm jealous of the people the people I fall in love with Fall in love with
I'm jealous of the people the people I try to be more like
Try to be more like
I'm even jealous of the people the people who hate me
Hate more
A Complete History of Sexual Jealousy Parts 17 to 24

I'm jealous of the man the man you broke the heart of Broke the heart of I'm jealous of the men you knew before
In a life that I can never be a part of There's more than meets the eye
In the way a stranger meets your eye, I know there's more
A Complete History of Sexual Jealousy Parts 17 to 24

If looks could kill I'd kill the men Whose looks would kill you if looks could kill
And the men who say "no competition"
Know the competition love instils I'm jealous of the people who ask you to ask me "Who's keeping score?"
In a Complete History of Sexual Jealousy the scores are 17 to 24

Hey hey hey, hi hi hi
Am I in your way?
Hey hey hey, hi hi hi
Can't you feel how you're killing my pride?
I die every day

I'm jealous of the dangling men
You know you'll never go to bed with I've felt the fire that fires them
I've known the unrequited love it's fed with
And I don't believe in Platonic love
But I'm still jealous of Plato
What a bore!
A Complete History of Sexual Jealousy Parts 17 to 24

Come into my arms my lover, let me be your sanctuary Come into my arms my lover, where you no longer have to look at me
You've been stupid enough to love someone who's hurt
you a lot
I'll hurt you more
