

The Angels Are Voyeurs

Momus

The pervert and his angels hide amongst the stars and watch
And as we blow ourselves to bits the angels pump their cocks
Their semen flows across the sky and forms new milky wheys
And somewhere in some galaxy in less than seven days They make a planet more curvaceous and much sexier than ours
Full of bigger sinners
More worthy, more worthy of voyeurs
