

Cleopatra

Mon Rovîa

It takes one to know one
My heart was frozen
At the sight of you
Don't give a damn about the trauma
It's you and I until the sundown
It's a classic point of view

Man, you got me feeling up there
I'm floating through the clouds
Hid all your tears upstairs
And you're looking at me now

My Cleopatra
Why do you look so sad?
It doesn't matter
They never had your back
My Cleopatra
Why do you look so sad?
It doesn't matter
They never had your back

Nah nah, not ever

My soul swoon
Cosmic boom
It's a good day to be alive again
Flowers bloom
Outside your room
It's a good day to be alive again

It's a good day to be alive again
It's a good day to be alive

My Cleopatra
Why do you look so sad?
It doesn't matter
They never had your back
My Cleopatra
Why do you look so sad?
It doesn't matter
They never had your back

And I watched you
Be consumed by your doom
I [?]
And I watched you
Be consumed by your doom
I didn't see your scars

My Cleopatra
I know why you're so sad
It does matter
I never had your back
My Cleopatra
It does matter

Nah, nah, not ever
