

Deeper Waters

Mon Rovîa

Who you gonna call when ya in deeper waters
I know you want it all, but ya souls asunder
And maybe there's plan, for you to wander
But will you ever change, to keep from going under

Daylight
Been up, since 2am, man, something don't feel right
And I got my brothers here
They want me up there
Six figures in my dreams right
Your words were full a lead turned to powder instead
Let me show you a real high
Turning everything you fear, into bright chandeliers

And I just wanna sit court side with the bros
Watch the king of La, dribble down the court
Always wondered if I could make it out the low
But sometimes, it's in the hard that you grow

Sit back, think fast, Relax
Way back, My heart, attacked
Yeah, we're all diamonds and it's rough
Still can shine, got to want it enough

Who you gonna call when ya in deeper waters
I know you want it all, but ya souls asunder
And maybe there's plan, for you to wander
But will you ever change, to keep from going under

Who you gonna call when ya in deeper waters
I know you want it all, but ya souls asunder
And maybe there's plan, for you to wander
But will you ever change, to keep from going under

Felt the noose around my neck
My steps getting heavy, I feel it in my breath
A nigga trying to rise before his sunset
Cut off all my ties, loosen regret

Gotta clean out my system
Gotta break out this prison
Lord knows I'm on a mission
Still stuck to my vision

Who you gonna call when ya in deeper waters
I know you want it all, but ya souls asunder
And maybe there's plan, for you to wander
But will you ever change, to keep from going under

Who you gonna call when ya in deeper waters
I know you want it all, but ya souls asunder
And maybe there's plan, for you to wander
But will you ever change, to keep from going under

All things grow, All things die, Winding roads, Steeples high
Here's my soul, Answer why, All alone, Through this trial

When I go, Will you smile, Seen your face, In this fire
Burning red, Red desire

And what trickles to the mind, enters the heart
And what enters the heart Lights a spark
Where do I start
Where do we start
