

Trials

Mon Rová

So much to do, so little time
And this world might take what's yours and mine
So roll your stone, though it rolls back down
'Cause our hearts were made to cross the line

'Cause it might take your heart
Stand up on your own feet
But it could take you far
If only you believe
This world is yours
You have a choice

So much to do, so little time
And this world might take what's yours and mine
So roll your stone, though it rolls back down
'Cause our hearts were made to cross the line

'Cause it might take your heart
Stand up on your own feet
But it could take you far
If only you believe
This world is yours
You have a choice

This world is yours

'Cause it might take your heart
Stand up on your own feet
But it could take you far
If only you believe
This world is yours