

Whose face am I

Mon Rovîa

Hey Maria
Won't you come down
I've been waiting far too long
Every passing mirror
Shows me someone I cried for
And I wanna know
Whose face am I?

I been reaching
Through lonely seasons
Trying to give meaning
To phantom feelings
Yearning in my soul
For a name I'll never know

Hey soldier
What'd you go see her for
Was it love in the war
Or the vices of a man
Did you even know
You left something behind
Whose face am I?

I been reaching
Through lonely seasons
Trying to give meaning
To phantom feelings
Yearning in my soul
For a name I'll never know
Whose face am I?
