

Bicycle Thief

Monaco

There's a place that means so much to me in my life
Where I know that I was never meant to go
Maybe one day I will find a way
To let it go

Should I take a chance and run away from my life
Never wanting to accept the truth I know
So I might say "goodbye" one day...
Just let it go

It's not easy to believe the words that you say
But I guess that's just the way the story goes
Watching you cry - I know I'll try
To let it go

Just let it go
