

Jealous Guy

Monarchy

You're walking too seductively
You turn heads and lose focus on me
I picture you with someone else, I'm dying inside
He's with you, taking off your dress but it's all in my mind

I feel sick, it's coming
I can't stop it's taking over

And my face grows pale in this moment
There's a broken monster in me
I can't look you in the eye
I'm such a jealous guy

And I'm drowning inside this emotion
'Cause the pain leaves nowhere to breath
I can't look you in the eye
I'm such a jealous guy

I'm just too jealous
Jealous, jealous, I'm, I'm jealous
Jealous, I, I, I, I'm so
Jealous, jealous, I'm, I'm jealous
Jealous, I, I, I

I'm tortured, so helplessly stuck
I know that I love you too much
I should be letting you go free, my mind is a mess
What comes out is mistaken intuition, I've got to confess

I feel sick, it's coming
I can't stop it's taking over

And my face grows pale in this moment
There's a broken monster in me
I can't look you in the eye
I'm such a jealous guy

And I'm drowning inside this emotion
'Cause the pain leaves nowhere to breath
I can't look you in the eye
I'm such a jealous guy
