

Never Ever (I've Been Kissed)

Moneybrother

Never ever I've been kissed
Consequently didn't expect this
Said the girl, I saw a tear in her eye
So damn confident that everything dies
And that's just my luck, you get some sunshine and then your fucked
A little bit sunshine

Never ever I've been touched
Didn't know that I could sense this much Like I'm scared having opened that door
If i fall It'll surely hurt moore
And thats just my style, you get some sunshine for a while
Just for a while though

Surely, I keep hanging on Cause stakes getting higher, cause you're on your own
At birth, and darling when you go
You'll take no one with you, you're walking alone

Never ever I've been touched
Though I've dreamt about this moment much
There's a darkness that I didn't expect
There's a sadness also in this perfection
And there you go
You get some sunshine but I dont know, about a sunshine
Clearly, something's going on and that's just my style
I get a little sunshine for a while, but just for a while though

Surely, I keep hanging on Cause stakes getting higher, you're all on your own
At birth, and darling when you go
You'll take no one with you, you're walking alone

Never ever I've been kissed
Consequently didn't expect this
Did a wake you up by singing a song
Did i keep you just a little too lo-o-ong
