

Deep In

MoneySign Suede

Ay. Keep it real. It's been hard. I feel crazy
Ay. I'm too deep in. You can't save me
Ay. I love the way I am. The struggle made me
Bitch, I've been through hell and back. You can't play me

Even if you try to bitch
You know you can't replace me
I don't even like me
But to see me, people pay me
I don't know what to feel like
I ain't been feeling nothing lately
I probably need some more love from you, baby

Ay. Fuck it. I don't care. Fuck the love
I'm already going through a lot
Tomorrow I gotta see the judge
Court after court 'cause it was jug after jug
These niggas be hating on the net
But never slide to see what's up

I'm still the same
Just a couple shit change
That shit hurt, don't it?
When you split ways
Trust me: you don't need them anyway
I don't need you or need them
I'm self-made

Every day a nigga lit on God, I stayed paid
I ain't graduate, but look, bitch: I'm on stage
I'm 'a rub into your face
I remember you still hate
You ain't think I was gonna make it
Now you hear about my name

Free my nigga Polo
Miss my nigga every day
I can hear it in his voice
I can't stand I hear the pain
And I swear the way you're living
They're gon' put you in the cage
Shit. I been feeling crazy
I been feeling out of place

Ain't nobody understands how I feel
Is it love, real life for real?
I'm out on bail
Still riding with the steel
Do you like me
Or do you like the foreign wheel?

Ay. Keep it real. It's been hard. I feel crazy
Ay. I'm too deep in. You can't save me
Ay. I love the way I am. The struggle made me
Bitch, I've been through hell and back. You can't play me
