

Momma Don't Cry

MoneySign Suede

Yeah, yeah
Ayy, ayy
Ayy, free me and all that
Yeah, ayy, ayy, yeah, yeah
Gon' be straight, nigga, we gon' be straight, I promise you that Yeah, ayy

Mama, don't cry, I'll be fine
I just caught a lil' time
I know that you taught me better, I swear to God, Mama, I tried
Mama, don't cry, I'll be fine
I just caught a lil' time
I know that you taught me better and I swear to God, Mama, I tried

Mama, soon I'll be home
I ain't wanna leave you alone
Meanwhile, put your voice on the phone
I did it to myself, I'm grown
I've been through a lot, you wouldn't know
Metal bunks get cold
My heart cold like snow
Can't complain, this the life I chose
I'm a lil' nigga from the trenches
Like, what the fuck they expected?
I don't wanna hear no lection
I wanna ride down with my weapon
Everybody know I'm bringin' checks in
I ain't never seen you bring bread in
When I was out, you would never see me restin'
When I was out, you would never see me restin'

Mama, don't cry, I'll be fine
I just caught a lil' time
I know that you taught me better, I swear to God, Mama, I tried
Mama, don't' cry, I'll be fine
I just caught a lil' time
I know that you taught me better and I swear to God, Mama, I tried

I know you taught me better
I was just trying to get some cheddar
I'm feeling sad right now, send the letter
When I die I wanna be remembered
I came a long way from Sketchers
Look what I did with my temper
Swear to God, who would have thought?
Who would have thought when I was playing with rocks?
Who would have thought when I was playing with a ball?
Time passed, now I'm inside four walls
I'm bored in this bitch, trying to draw
I'm mad you ain't answered my call
I'm thinkin' 'bout my main squeeze
I hope she don't leave
We gon' be straight when I'm out
I'ma buy you that big house

Mama, don't cry, I'll be fine
I just caught a lil' time

I know that you taught me better, I swear to God, Mama, I tried
Mama, don't cry, I'll be fine
I just caught a lil' time
I know that you taught me better and I swear to God, Mama, I tried

I swear to God, Mama, I tried
I swear to God, Mama, I tried
Ayy, free me and all that
