Monica

Ho, Ho, Sideline Ho, Youse a ho, youse a ho, sideline ho

When you called his phone, did he pick it up?

No, 'cause we was making love.

Did you meet his moms, have you met his kids? No, oh, did you know my kid was his?

No, oh.

Get your shit together you're making a fool of yourself,
it don't matter if he spends the night, his home is somewhere else

Ain't you tired of being on the side line, tired of getting yours after I get mine baby?

second place don't get a prize when you gone realize
you're wasting your time baby

Ain't you're tired of him getting, hitting real quick, then rolling and

Ain't you're tired of when you need a little change and he lies about what he holding?

Ain't you're tired of spending all the holidays alone, tired of being his little sideline ho?

Do he take you out, do he foot your bills, no oh, 'cause I know what his balance is have you been to his church,

do he ask you to pray, no oh 'cause Sunday's Family day

Get your shit together you're making a fool of yourself,
it don't matter if he spends the night, his home is somewhere else

Ain't you tired of being on the side line, tired of getting yours after I get mine baby?

second place don't get a prize when you gone realize

Ain't you're tired of when you need a little change and he lies
about what he holding?

Ain't you're tired of spending all the holidays alone, tired of being his little sideline ho?

Do you got benefits, no, credit cards, no, house keys, no, then youse a sideline ho,

do you get pillow talk, no, held at night, no, if you don't make his breakfast then youse a sideline ho
