

Cemetery of Hearts

Mono Inc.

The one I love, she left me hurt
The one I witnessed left me blurred
The one I lifted made me creep (made me creep)
The one I saved, she made me lose
The one I fought for brought the blues
The one I wrote for crossed the plan
So, here I am, back again (here I am, back again)

On this cemetery of hearts, amongst the lost ones here
On this cemetery of hearts, you feel the pain, my dear
There's funeral of love beneath the fallen stars
Come save a place for me on this cemetery of hearts

The one I died for stole the rope
The one I hoped for killed my hope
The one I cried for, she couldn't hear (she couldn't hear)
The one I prayed for needed space
The one I challenged won the race
The one I care for, gave a damn
So, here I am, back again (here I am, back again)

On this cemetery of hearts, amongst the lost ones here
On this cemetery of hearts, you feel the pain, my dear
There's funeral of love beneath the fallen stars
Come save a place for me on this cemetery of hearts

So, here I am, back again
On this cemetery of hearts
So, here I am, back again

On this cemetery of hearts, amongst the lost ones here
On this cemetery of hearts, you feel the pain, my dear
There's funeral of love beneath the fallen stars
Come save a place for me on this cemetery of hearts
