

Fly

Mono Inc.

A cold blow deep in the night
It felt like a hand on my head
No candle lightened the darkness
So I sat up in my bed

There was a noise like a whisper
But there was nobody to see
No frame of physical presence
But then she spoke to me

Raven fly, raven fly
Spread your wings and say goodbye
Raven fly, raven fly away
Raven-free, raven rise
Glide into the jet black skies
Raven-grief, raven leave today

She said you don't need to fear me
I came to brace your belief
At first we'll loosen your tension
Endurance is all you need

You're bruised because they abused you
In many non visible ways
Betrayed for a lighthearted childhood
But there is a bill they'll pay

Raven fly, raven fly
Spread your wings and say goodbye
Raven fly, raven fly away
Raven-free, raven rise
Glide into the jet black skies
Raven-grief, raven leave today

Betrayed for a lighthearted childhood
But there is a bill they'll pay

Raven fly, raven fly
Spread your wings and say goodbye
Raven fly, raven fly away
Raven-free, raven rise
Glide into the jet black skies
Raven-grief, raven leave today

Raven fly, raven fly
Spread your wings and say goodbye
Raven fly, raven fly away
Raven-free, raven rise
Glide into the jet black skies
Raven-grief, raven leave today
