

For All We Have to Suffer

Mono Inc.

Don't give a damn 'bout our salvation
Don't fear the vengeance of the saints
We'll have a drink on you and make you pay
For all we have to suffer today
For all we have to suffer today

No, you don't know your Ten Commandments
And you don't seem to love your sheep
We'll sell deliverance and make you pay
For all we have to suffer today
For all we have to suffer today

We'll spread the word of our leader
And burn the icons of your lies
We'll pave the road to hell and make you pay
For all we have to suffer today
For all we have to suffer today

No, you don't know your Ten Commandments
And you don't seem to love your sheep
We'll sell deliverance and make you pay
For all we have to suffer today
For all we have to suffer today

We've never dreamt of absolution
So put your lock at heaven's gate
We'll find a place for you and make you pay
For all we have to suffer today
For all we have to suffer today

No, you don't know your Ten Commandments
And you don't seem to love your sheep
We'll sell deliverance and make you pay
For all we have to suffer today
For all we have to suffer today
