

House on Fire

Mono Inc.

There'll be no witness and no Judge
It's just me and you
Oh, I've been waiting all my life
To talk about the truth
I was your unawakened victim, too small for defence
But things can change and now I'm back to take revenge

Set the house on fire
It seems the worlds coming down
Set the house on fire
Burn it down to the ground
It's no house of love
Just a house of pain
I set the house on fire
Set the house on fire

There's no good god and no police
You're as helpless as I
Was back and all those frightening years
So Looking back in time
High was the ward and you were ruthless
But you failed all the way
Oh, did you really think I wouldn't make you pay

Set the house on fire
It seems the worlds coming down
Set the house on fire
Burn it down to the ground
It's no house of love
Just a house of pain
I set the house on fire
Set the house on fire

It's no house of love
Just a house of pain
I set this house on fire
I set this house on fire
I set the house on fire

All things can change and now i'm back to take Revenge
(I set the house on fire)
All things can change and now i'm back to take Revenge
(I set the house on fire)
All things can change and now i'm back to take Revenge
(I set the house on fire)
All things can change and now i'm back to take Revenge, yeah
