

Never Alone

Mono Inc.

They're coming in the dusk
They're coming in the dawn
They take you by surprise
And speak to you full-on
You'd wish to stay in silence
But spirits never sleep
So listen now attentively
They'll tell you what they need

Wherever
Wherever
Wherever you are
Wherever
Wherever you roam
You're never
You're never
Wherever you are
You're never
No never alone

They're coming in the dusk
They're coming in the dawn
They're speaking about desires
They'll tell you what they want
You've tried hard to ignore them
But their voices were too loud
So listen now attentively
Or you'll be freaking out

Wherever
Wherever
Wherever you are
Wherever
Wherever you roam
You're never
You're never
Wherever you are
You're never
No never alone

Wherever
Wherever
Wherever you are
Wherever
Wherever you roam
You're never
You're never
Wherever you are
You're never
No never alone

They're coming in the dusk
They take you by surprise
And speak to you full-on
You'd wish to stay in silence

So listen now attentively

Wherever
Wherever
Wherever you are
Wherever
Wherever you roam
You're never
You're never
Wherever you are
You're never
No never alone

Wherever
Wherever
Wherever you are
Wherever
Wherever you roam
You're never
You're never
Wherever you are
You're never
No never alone

You're never
No never alone
You're never
No never alone
