

Right for the Devil

Mono Inc.

No, I ain't wholesome
No, I ain't sane
You say that I'm dangerous
It's black in my veins
You claim that it's proven
In your good book of lies
You say I'll go straight to hell
Well I'm not surprised

It ain't right for you
It ain't right for your level
It ain't right in your eyes
But it's right for the devil
It ain't good for you
It ain't fine for your level
It ain't right in your ears
But it's right for the devil

No, I ain't godly
No, I ain't tame
Just go ring your parish bell
And I'll shoulder the blame
I'm not born to be sacred
I'm not born to be scared
You say I'll go straight to hell
But I am prepared

It ain't right for you
It ain't right for your level
It ain't right in your eyes
But it's right for the devil
It ain't good for you
It ain't fine for your level
It ain't right in your ears
But it's right for the devil

Te videre in inferno
Te videre in inferno
Te videre in inferno

It ain't right for you
It ain't right for your level
It ain't right in your eyes
But it's right for the devil
It ain't good for you
It ain't fine for your level
It ain't right in your ears
But it's right for the devil

I'm gonna see you in hell
Te videre in inferno
I'm gonna see you in hell
Te videre in inferno
