

Run for Your Life

Mono Inc.

You can hear them yell bloody murder
You can see them raising their rakes
You can hear them knocking frontdoors
Stronger, stronger until the break

You can hear the barking of hound dogs
You can hear their witches shall burn
You can smell their cold-sweat and anger
Don't look back and never return

Run, run, run for your life
Burn, burn, burn all the bridges
Fast, fast, faster than fast
Try to escape the flames
Run, run over the hills
Burn, burn, burn all the bridges
Far, far, further than far
So you may survive this day

You can see them rushing across the fields
You can hear their panting at night
You can see the torches and sabres
Never rest, they're not far behind

You can hear the barking of hound dogs
You can hear their witches shall burn
You can smell their cold-sweat and anger
Don't look back and never return

Run, run, run for your life
Burn, burn, burn all the bridges
Fast, fast, faster than fast
Try to escape the flames
Run, run over the hills
Burn, burn, burn all the bridges
Far, far, further than far
So you may survive this day

Everywhere you are
Everywhere you'll be
Every time you rest
Stand up and run
The hunting won't stop
They're coming for you
Guilty or not

Run, run, run for your life
Burn, burn, burn all the bridges
Fast, fast, faster than fast
Try to escape the flames
Run, run over the hills
Burn, burn, burn all the bridges
Far, far, further than far
So you may survive this day
