

Shining Light

Mono Inc.

I am the breath on your skin
I am the velvet round your body
I am the kiss in your neck
I am the sparkle on your lashes
I am the plethora of your hair
I am the corner of your eyes
The imprint of your fingers
I am the liquid in your veins
And day by day I'm flowing through your heart

No matter how fast
No matter how far
You carry me with you
Wherever you go
Whatever you do
I am a part of you

No matter how fast
No matter how far
You carry me with you
Wherever you go
Whatever you do
I am a part of you

I am a part of you
I am a part of you

I am the dream you've never lived
I am the yearning that hounds you
I am the pain in between your thighs
I am the scream inside your head
I am the silence
The fear of your spirit
The lie and the loss of your grandeur
The lack of power and rage of your heartstrings
I'm the void that one day you'll be

No matter how fast
No matter how far
You carry me with you
Wherever you go
Whatever you do
I am a part of you

No matter how fast
No matter how far
You carry me with you
Wherever you go
Whatever you do
I am a part of you

Wherever you go
Whatever you do
I am a part of you
Wherever you go
Whatever you do
I am a part of you
Wherever you go

Whatever you do
I am a part of you

I am a part of you
I am a part of you

Shining light
In your shadows I'm turning
Shining light
In your shadows I'm turning
Shining light
In your shadows I'm turning
I am a part of you
Shining light
In your shadows I'm turning
I am a part of you
Shining light
In your shadows I'm turning
I am a part of you
Shining light
In your shadows I'm turning
I am a part of you
