

The Banks of Eden

Mono Inc.

Gone in the belt of the haze
Only one black mile away
Gone and i stare at the blaze
Only one black mile away

She was hoping to fly and a life without fear
She was hoping to see all the answers so clear
She was hoping for more

Stranded here on the banks of eden
In paradise but inside i die
Stranded here on the banks of eden
In paradise but it's hard to say goodbye

Lost in the eye of the storm
Only one black mile away
Lost she went overboard
Only one black mile away

She was hoping for peace and redemption to come
She was looking for grace and a place in the sun
She was looking for more

Stranded here on the banks of eden
In paradise but inside i die
Stranded here on the banks of eden
In paradise but it's hard to say goodbye
