

The Book of Fire

Mono Inc.

Wise men and shamans, they all added lines
They all added drawings and spells
Warlocks and witches, sages and signs
There's more between heaven and hell

Now everything is wasted
The fables and truth
Its reduced to rubble
Beyond excuse

All our race had ever learned
Ever learned 'bout life
A legend told, day grows old
Lost within one night
All the magic dead and gone
The wisdom we desire
There was thunder and light
It was raining all night
But it burned with the book of fire

It is tempered and hidden
Science and herbs
Collection of knowledge and charm
Sketches and karma
Potions and rage
Instructions to fortune or harm

Now everything is wasted
The guidance and the hymns
And we're deaf, dumb, and blind
Ever since

All our race had ever learned
Ever learned 'bout life
A legend told, day grows old
Lost within one night
All the magic dead and gone
The wisdom we desire
There was thunder and light
It was raining all night
But it burned with the book of fire

We cannot turn back the time
We have to live with this disgrace and blame
It's been all written down for us
So we don't have to do the same... mistakes again

All our race had ever learned
Ever learned 'bout life
A legend told, day grows old
Lost within one night
All the magic dead and gone
The wisdom we desire
There was thunder and light
It was raining all night
But it burned with the book of fire

Now everything is wasted
Too late to make a change
Our history and future
Went up in flames

All our race had ever learned
The wisdom we desire
There was thunder and light
It was raining all night
But it burned with the book of fire

There was thunder and light
It was raining all night
But it burned with the book of fire
