

The Last Crusade

Mono Inc.

I saw the fireline
I saw a village up in flames
I saw affliction
And gravesites without names
I saw a mother die
Holding an infant in her arms
Saw desperation
Murder, death and harm
All in the name of love

Take it all, take it all
Take it all and more
Bring the faith, bring belief
With your holy war
Holy cards, holy rood
Either way, finally
You will all, you will all end in purgatory

I saw a sea of blood
Around the hovel of the king
I saw the cradle
Where hate and terror spring
I saw a princess there
With her hands tied behind her back
I saw crusader's shame
Running down her legs
All in the name of love

Take it all, take it all
Take it all and more
Bring the faith, bring belief
With your holy war
Holy cards, holy rood
Either way, finally
You will all, you will all end in purgatory
