

Unconditionally

Mono Inc.

Son, beauteous and pure faithful and small
actually you but breaking my fall
You came saw and conquered
You lit up my life
I'm busted and tired now
but I'll be allright

I will be here when you wake up,
here when you cry,
here when you crawl,
and here when you walk
I will be here when you need me, here when you run
and here when you fall.

Son, curious and chased splendid and cheer
almost got lost
but now that you're here it's all making sense the pain and defeat
you never incurred
what happened to me

I will be here when you wake up,
here when you cry,
here when you crawl,
I will be here when you need me,
here when you run
and here when you fall.

Son, beauteous and pure
faithful and small
actually you but breaking my fall
You came saw and conquered
You lit up my life
I'm busted and tired now
but I'll be allright

I will be here when you wake up,
here when you cry,
here when you crawl,
I will be here when you need me,
here when you run
and here when you fall.

I promise I will
I will be here when you wake up,
here when you smile,
and here when you love, whatever we'll be,
I will be here when you need me,
and give you my love
unconditionally.
