

When the Raven Dies Tonight

Mono Inc.

I knock on the door
I tap on the floor
It's gloomy in my mind
I scratch on the wall
Too feeble to bawl
All along the line

I'm losing faith, I'm losing faith
Here in my darkness (here in my darkness)
I'm losing faith, I'm losing faith

Is there somebody here
Somebody listening
Someone who cares
And someone who tries
Somebody out there
Someone to hold me
When the raven dies tonight?

Is there somebody here
Somebody listening
Someone to share
The rest of my time
Somebody out there
Someone to hold me
When the raven dies tonight?
Is there somebody here?

Who hears what I hear
And fears what I fear
And pulls a left-behind
Who lulls me to sleep
Dreamless and deep
Who's sensitive and kind?

I'm losing myself, I'm losing myself
Here in my darkness (here in my darkness)
I'm losing myself, I'm losing myself

Is there somebody here
Somebody listening
Someone who cares
And someone who tries
Somebody out there
Someone to hold me
When the raven dies tonight?

Is there somebody here
Somebody listening
Someone to share
The rest of my time
Somebody out there
Someone to hold me
When the raven dies tonight?

A rare soul to believe me
A savior to release me

A guiding light to lead me
Hello?
Is there somebody here?

(Is there somebody here?)

Is there somebody here
Somebody listening
Someone who cares
And someone who tries
Somebody out there
Someone to hold me
When the raven dies tonight?

Is there somebody here
Somebody listening
Someone to share
The rest of my time
Somebody out there
Someone to hold me
When the raven dies tonight?
Is there somebody here?

(A rare soul to believe me)
Somebody here
(A guiding light to lead me)
Is there somebody here?
(A savior to release me)
(Hello?)

Is there somebody here
(A rare soul to believe me)
Somebody here
(A guiding light to lead me)
Is there somebody here?
(A savior to release me)
(Hello?)

Is there somebody here
Somebody listening?
